A Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern:

As his supervisor, I can say that it is an absolute pleasure to write this letter of recommendation for Adam Dervišević. I have been working with him for over five years and during that time I have been consistently impressed with his work ethic, dedication to excellence and his willingness to lend a helping hand as a great team player.

He has met the employer's demands to the fullest, working well under pressure. He responded well to the last minute changes in the schedule and adapted quickly to new teaching materials when needed.

Adam's booking rate has been above average which proves him constant quality of teaching. He used a wide range of resources to motivate young learners to participate in the classes and enjoy practicing English. Their parents described him as gentle and patient, good at guiding, good at expanding the topics, good attention to details, focused on grammar and pronunciation, lively, warm and humorous.

In short, he would be an asset to any organization lucky enough to have Adam on board. I strongly recommend him for any position he may be applying for, and I am confident that he will excel in whatever he does.

Sincerely,
Dragan Cvetkov
